

Director of Music and Musical Mission

An exciting post for an outgoing and creative person, with a passion for traditional choral music and church community engagement.

With the support of the Vicar and Church Council, you'll:

- Director of Music: Develop our strong choral tradition, developing our Men and Boys' choir, and growing our new Mixed Voice choir.
  - Musical Mission: Advance our community engagement using music; particularly collaborating with schools, and encouraging people who are typically underrepresented in church music.
  - Cultivate our appreciation of choral music at SJB: a large North London church with a warm acoustic and fine three manual organ.
- Salary: £20,000 P.A.
    - 20 hrs a week
  - The church is within six minutes' walk of High Barnet tube station.

This appointment is time-limited to three years, with the aim of establishing it permanently.

The postholder must be an experienced organist and accompanist.
