Traditional

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It contains four measures of music: the first measure has a dotted quarter note followed by an eighth note, and the next three measures continue with eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains four measures of accompaniment, primarily using quarter and eighth notes with some rests.

The second system of musical notation also consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from the first system, ending with a whole note in the fourth measure. The lower staff provides accompaniment, including some chords and rests, and concludes with a double bar line.
