

Unison version
(Full score)

Doubling Thomas

Words and music by Hazel Hudson
based on Jn. 20:19-29

A

Moderato (♩ = 45 approx.)

p
mp

1. It was the first day of the week, the doors were locked, and bol-ted
2. group, Tho-mas the twin, was not a - mong them to ap -

B

p
mp cres.

too, when ten dis-ci-ples met in se - cre-cy, fear - ing the lea-ders of the Jews. Je - sus ap-plaud. So the ten o - thers, full of joy, all ex-claimed, 'We have real-ly seen the Lord!' So think - ing,

p
mp cres.

peared a-mong them and gree - ted them with 'Peace be un - to you!', and then he showed them all both his
'What a gul - li - ble lot!', Tho-mas the scep-ti-cal re - plied: 'I'll not be-lieve un - less I can hands and side, re - peat - ing, 'Peace to you!', re - peat - ing, 'Peace to you!' 2. One of the see the scars and feel his woun-ded side, and feel his woun-ded side. 3. The fol - l'wing

C

p
mp

p
mp

week they met a - gain; Tho - mas the twin was with them too. Sud - den - ly pa - ci - ty for doubt, we have ca - pa - ci - ty for faith, for we are

Je - sus stood there just as be - fore, greet - ing them with 'Peace to you!' 'Now put your part - ly trained dis - ci - ples, so lis - ten to what Lord Je - sus * says: 'You doubt - ing

Descant optional (See FOOTNOTE)

Ah Ah

fin - ger here, 'he in - struc - ted Tho - mas, 'place it in my side, and do not doubt, but real - ly be - Tho - ma - ses, does your faith re - flect mun - dane re - a - li - ty? Bles - sed are faith - ful ones who have

Ah

lieve! 'My Lord, my God', Tho - mas re - plied, my God! Tho - mas re - plied. 4. We have ca - ne - ver seen but yet be - lieve in me, but yet be - lieve in me!

* Pronounce 'says' as if rhyming with 'days', thus forming a rhyme of assonance with 'faith'.
 FOOTNOTE: The optional descant may either be added to V. 4 or to both Verses 3 and 4, in which case V. 3 may be hummed and V. 4 be sung to 'Ah!'
 © Hazel Hudson

Unison version
(Vocal parts)

Doubting Thomas

Words and music by Hazel Hudson
based on Jn. 20:19-29

Moderato (♩ = 45 approx.)

A

p
mp

1. It was the first day of the week, the doors were locked, and bol-ted
group, Tho-mas the twin, was not a - mong them to ap-

too, when ten dis - ci - ples met in se - cre - cy, fear - ing the lea - ders of the plaud. So the ten o - thers, full of joy, all ex - claimed, 'We have real - ly seen the

B

Jews. Je - sus ap - peared a - mong them and gree - ted them with 'Peace be un - to Lord! So think - ing 'What a gul - li - ble lot!', Tho-mas the scep - ti - cal re - you!', and then he showed them all both his hands and side, re - peat - ing, 'Peace to plied: 'I'll not be - lieve un - less I can see the scars and feel his woun - ded

C

p
mp

you!', re - peat - ing, 'Peace to you!' 2. One of the side, and feel his woun - ded side'. 3. The fol - l'wing week they met a - gain; Tho-mas the twin was with them too. Sud - den - ly Je - sus stood there pa - ci - ty for doubt, we have ca - pa - ci - ty for faith, for we are part - ly trained dis -

D

mf
mf

just as be - fore, greet - ing them with 'Peace to you!' 'Now put your ci - ples, so lis - ten to what Lord Je - sus * says: 'You doubt - ing

Descant optional (See FOOTNOTE)

mf

poco a poco cres.
poco a poco cres.

Ah

Ah

fin - ger here,' he in - struc-ted Tho - mas, 'place it in my side, and do not doubt, but real - ly be - Tho-ma-ses, does your faith re - flect mun - dane re - a - li - ty? Bles-sed are faith - ful ones who have

Ah

mf

lieve!' 'My Lord, my God', Tho - mas re - plied, my God!' Tho - mas re - plied. 4. We have ca - ne - ver seen but yet be - lieve in me, but yet be - lieve in me!
me!

* Pronounce 'says' as if rhyming with 'days', thus forming a rhyme of assonance with 'faith'.

FOOTNOTE: The optional descant may either be added to V. 4 or to both Verses 3 and 4, in which case V. 3 may be hummed and V. 4 be sung to 'Ah!'