God's Shalom

The Beatitudes

(Revised Common Lectionary: All Saints)

Words by Colin Ferguson

Music by Hazel Hudson

GOD'S SHALOM

\[ J = 84 \]

1. It's when we know how poor we are, how much we really owe, and when our sorrow truly weeps and goes where Christ would vail, and work with mercy, offer hope, and know God will not fail.

2. Then God's Shalom shall be our home, His grace fulfill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a light upon His ways.

3. When we have passion for the truth, for justice to present.

\[ mp \]
\[ mf \]
\[ poco rit. \]
It's when we live with gentleness Blest shall we be who work for peace and with a balanced view, for when we live with no ill will, then God is living never flinch or stray; no insult threat nor pow'r can change the walking of God's too. Then God's Shalom shall be our home, His grace fulfil our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a light upon His ways.

5. For in the God-blessed life we find that all our dreams are one, for nothing is as great as God and

Then God's shalom shall be our home, His

Jesus Christ His son. Then God's Shalom shall be our home, His grace fulfill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, ad lib. and a

grace fulfill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a light upon His ways.

light upon His ways.

© Colin Fergusson
find that all our dreams are one, for nothing is as great as God and

Optional descant:

Then God's shalom shall be our home, His Jesus Christ His son. Then poco a poco cres.
God's Shalom shall be our home, His grace fulfill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, ad lib. and a grace fulfill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a light upon His ways. allargando light upon His ways. piu f

© Colin Fergusson
God's Shalom

The Beatitudes

(Revised Common Lectionary: All Saints)

Music by Hazel Hudson

Wards by Colin Ferguson

GOD’S SHALOM

It's when we know how poor we are, how much we really own, and when our sorrow truly weeps and goes where Christ would go. Then vail, and work with mercy, offer hope, and know God will not fail.

God's Shalom shall be our home, His grace fill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a light upon His ways.

Blest shall we be who work for peace and never flinch or stray; no insult, live with no ill will, then God is living too. Then God's Shalom shall be our home, His grace fill our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a light upon His ways.
ways.

5. For in the God-blest life we find that all our dreams are one, for no-thing is as great as God and

Optional descant

mf Then God's sha-lom shall be our home, His Je-sus Christ His son. Then God's Sha-lom shall be our home, His poco rit.  a tempo grace ful-fil our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a

poco rit.  ad lib.  a tempo grace ful-ful our days, and we shall be salt to the earth, and a allargando

light u-pon His ways.

© Colin Fergusson