Words:
Laura Parrett

Greater Love Hath No Man

Soprano
Alto
Men Organ
Pedals

Slow and reflective \( \frac{j}{4} = 60 \)

Their feet once marched in foreign fields
Young lives were lost in distant

Slow and reflective \( \frac{j}{4} = 60 \)

And as the years pass by we pray
The fallen sleep within our hearts

And as the years pass by we pray
The fallen sleep within our hearts

And as the years pass by we pray
The fallen sleep within our hearts

© James Woodhall 2014
Great-er love hath no man than he Who lays down his life for his friend

The

men whose stories were untold We will remember them

The gift of

men whose stories were untold We will remember them

men whose stories were untold We will remember them he Who lays down his life for his friend The men whose stories were untold We will re mem - ber them Grant peace O Lord as your mem - ber them Grant peace O Lord, to those who gave their lives as your Son gave His for me, And in their everlasting rest The blessing of serenity

Greater love hath no man than_ ff

he Who lays down his life for his friend
The men whose stories were untold
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them
We will remember them