

Verse one may be sung again after verse two.
The alto part is editorial and may be omitted.

Based on the Foolow
Oral Tradition
arr D G M

Raise, Christians, raise

S.
1. Raise, Chri - stians, raise your voi - ces high on this de - li - ghtful
2. He comes, the Sa - viour pro - mis'd long she - pherd of I - srael's

A.
1. Raise, Chri - stians, raise your voi - ces high on
2. He comes, the Sa - viour pro - mis'd long she -

Men
1. Raise, Chri - stians, raise your voi - ces high
2. He comes, the Sa - viour pro - mis'd long

6
morn, on this de - li - ghtful morn. Let loud ho - sa - nnas fold, she - pherd of I - srael's fold. Sing, se - raphs, sing your this, on this de - li - ghtful morn. Let loud ho - sa - nnas
- pherd, she - pherd of I - srael's fold. Sing, se - raphs, sing your on this de - li - ghtful morn. Let loud ho - sa - nnas she - pherd of I - srael's fold. Sing, se - raphs, sing your fill the sky for Christ the Lord is born, for and Christ the Lord is lou - dest song and strike your harps of gold, and strike your harps of fill the sky for Christ the Lord is born, for and Christ the lou - dest song and strike your harps of gold, and strike your fill the sky for Christ the Lord is born, for and lou - dest song and strike your harps of gold, and 16

11

born, for and Christ the Lord is born!
gold, and strike your harps of gold.

Lord is born, for Christ the Lord, for Christ the Lord is born!
harps of gold, and strike your harps, and strike your harps of gold.

Christ the Lord is born, for Christ the Lord is born!
strike your harps of gold, and strike your harps of gold.

