

BWV 112 no 1
English words
Paul England

The Lord, he is my shepherd true
Der Herr ist mein getreuer hirt

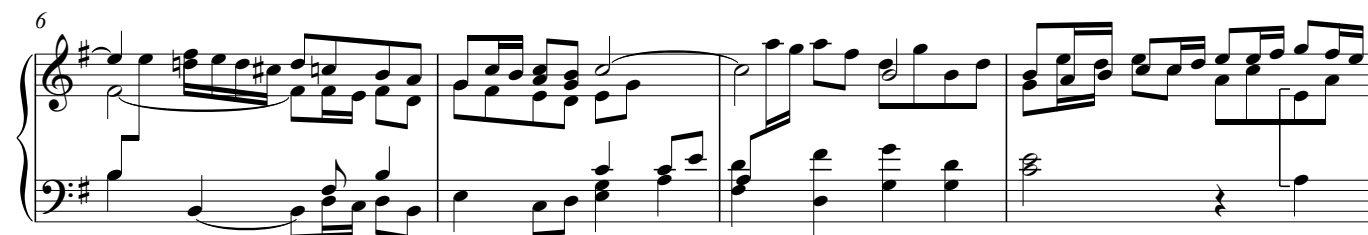

J S Bach
(1685 - 1750)
arr D G M

Allegro moderato

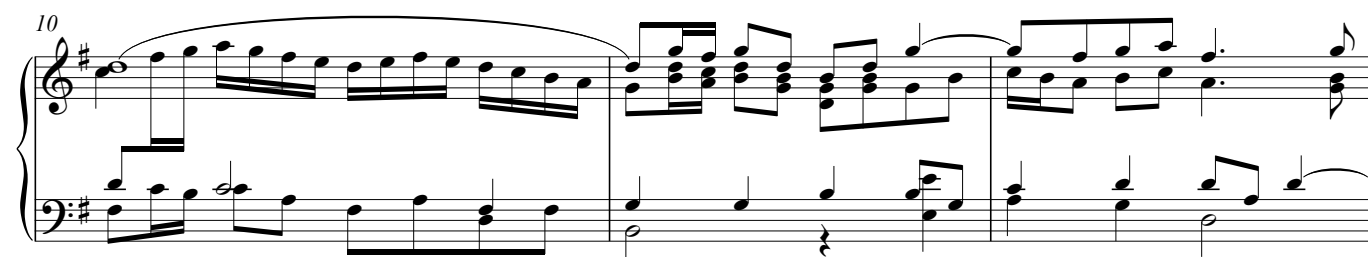

Measures 1-5 of the piano introduction. The right hand features a flowing melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

Measures 6-9 of the piano introduction. The right hand continues the melodic line, and the left hand maintains the accompaniment pattern.

10

Measures 10-12 of the piano introduction. The right hand features a more complex melodic passage with sixteenth notes, and the left hand continues the accompaniment.

13

Measures 13-16 of the vocal and piano section. The vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Men) enter with the lyrics "The Lord, he is my shepherd". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern in the left hand and a more active melody in the right hand.

The musical score is for a hymn in G major (one sharp). It features four staves: a vocal melody (treble clef), a vocal accompaniment (treble clef), a bass line (bass clef), and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The lyrics are 'He lea - deth me wi - thout sur -'. The score includes various musical notations such as whole, half, quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, rests, and accidentals. The piano part provides a harmonic foundation with chords and moving lines in both hands.
