Were they Filled with Expectation?

Words by Andrew Pratt Exxpectation (15.15.15.15.)

Music by Hazel Hudson

1. Were they filled with expectation? Did their minds well up with dreams? Was there sleep, try to pent anticipation; fear and joy, such tense extremes? Now the purgation, fear and joy, such tense extremes? Now the

2. We will hold you as God holds you, proud or tossing in your sleep, try to share each hidden feeling, under stand what war can reap. We will love enfold and bless us, when it's hardest to believe. May we

3. And to those whose life is ended, and to others who still grieve, may God's weary, frightened, broken, find their way to love and life; strange ad-walk this road beside you, we will always show respect, we will walk into the future as this time becomes the past, through each just - ment, words un - spoken, tension still be - yond that strife.

love and go on loving, never lose you or for - at - ti - tude and ac - tion may re - mem - brance live and last.

If singing in four parts, use the rhythm of the soprano part.
For permission to use or copy please contact andrewpratt48@gmail.com
© Words: Andrew Pratt
© Music: Hazel Hudson