O SACRED HEAD, SURROUNDED

Words trans. Sir Henry Baker

Melody Hans Leo Hassler harm. Colin Brumby

1. O sacred head surrounded, By crown of piercing thorn. O
2. In this thy bitter passion, Good shepherd think on me, With bleeding head so wounded, Reviled and put to scorn. Death's thy most sweet compassion, Unworthy though I be: Bepalid hue comes o'er thee, The glow of life decays, Yet neath thy cross abiding, For ever would I rest, In angel hosts adore thee, And tremble as they gaze.

thy dear love confiding, And with thy presence blest.
